

TREASURE HUNT

Over 450 years ago, Jean II Marquess of Losse came back to his family seat

From an early age he was a faithful servant of the Crown, first as page to François I, later fighting battles and defending royal strongholds in the reigns of Henri II and Charles IX.

Fame and wealth followed his services.

In 1570 (as you can see on the stone above the gatehouse vault) he built the castle into the fortress that you visit today.

Where was the treasure which enabled him to do such work hidden? We thought of 3 likely caches...

Find three little treasure chests when walking around with your family...

GOOD LUCK!
